

STONY BROOK IRACDA

INSTITUTIONAL RESEARCH AND ACADEMIC CAREER DEVELOPMENT AWARD

The Stony Brook IRACDA Program focuses on developing a diverse group of scientists through postdoctoral research and professional development. The program emphasizes skill development in pedagogy, grant writing, and mentoring to help advance careers in academic research and teaching.

PARTNER INSTITUTIONS

HIGHLIGHTS

- Three-year postdoctoral appointment with full fringe benefits
- Mentored research at Stony Brook University
- Mentored teaching at institutions that serve underrepresented populations
- Sponsored travel to scientific conferences and the IRACDA annual meeting
- Training in pedagogy, grant-writing, and preparing for positions in the professoriate

LEARN MORE

STONYBROOK.EDU/IRACDA
IRACDA@STONYBROOK.EDU

OUTCOMES

- 79% of alumni in faculty positions
- 30% at R1 Institutions
- 3 tenured at partner institutions

Other Career Outcomes

- Program Manager for Neuroscience Education, Brown University
- Assistant Director for Undergraduate Research, UCLA